Foreword

And in a while we the class of 1965 leave Grafton High. For those after us, glancing some future day at this book, we hope somehow to have captured our spirit and memories. Other than that we can leave nothing. Every ounce of knowledge and experience we have gained, and then some, will be needed to achieve in a world that much more advanced than a year ago. We, however, are confident. Above and beyond our adequate preparation for life, we are backed by the faith and determination of our parents, teachers, and countless others, who have put their all into making us the best. To them we offer our deepest gratitude. To them we owe our future success.

Dedication

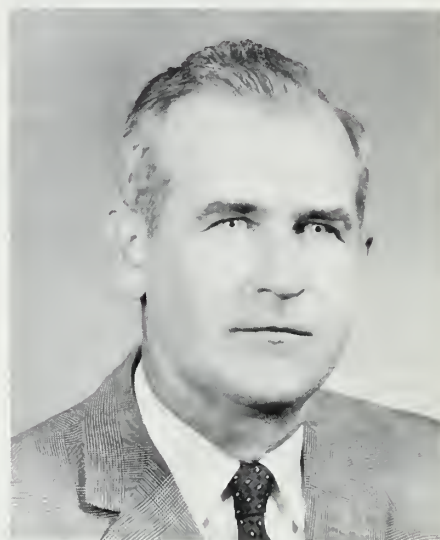

It is impossible to express the gratitude we, the Class of 1965, feel toward you. Throughout our high school career you have often demonstrated qualities of wisdom, guidance, and patience. Your sincere and devoted interest has been a key factor in establishing the success of our class.

Therefore, in warm appreciation, we, the Class of 1965, dedicate this yearbook, the Compass, to you, MR. MERRILL J. DUSSAULT.

SUPERINTENDENT

WALDREN P. LOJKO
PRINCIPAL

Dear Graduates,

You have completed another step in your formal education. Many of you will go on with additional "education in school" while others will learn from "education in the world." In either case, both groups will test what has been taught at Grafton Senior High School. We hope that the lessons you have learned will be reflected in a positive attitude toward your encounters, instead of the negative approach which is so common today. We hope that you will have faith and courage to stand for the good and dignified values you have learned. We hope that you have the energy to be productive and the imagination to be different, and not the carbon copy of the fads that surround you.

Yours is truly a world of adventure, progress, sacrifice, and triumph. Grafton High School hopes you are prepared to meet these challenges so that you can make our community and our world a much better place to live in.

Congratulations to you on your graduation and best wishes for many future successes.

Sincerely,

Waldren P. Lojko

UNDERCLASSMEN

Junior Class

Memories of the three years we shared with you are with us as we depart from Grafton High. Having watched your progress we see that you are an inspired class striving to obtain your goals; the goals for which you have born hardships, sorrows, and joys are near at hand. With all sincerity, it is to you, the Class of 1966, that we extend our gratitude for a lasting friendship and reluctantly bid farewell.

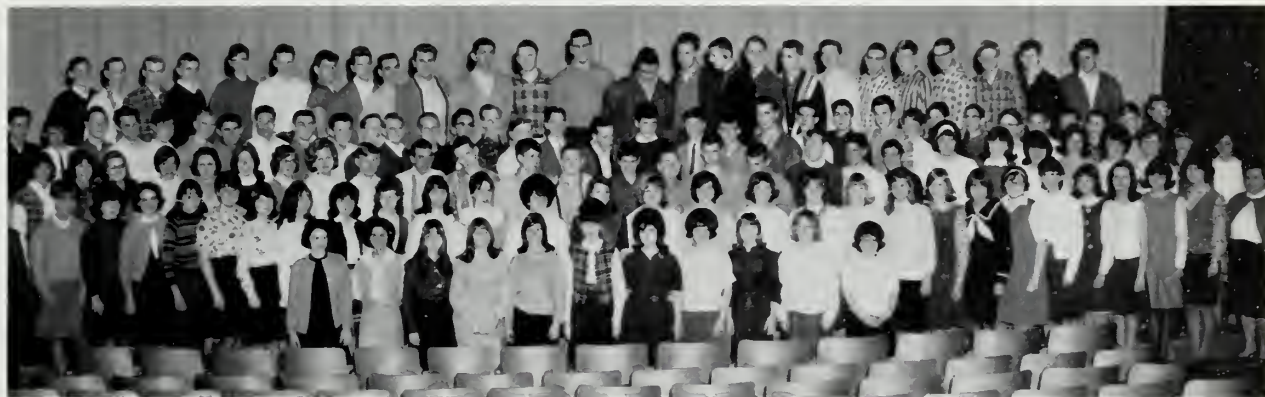

President—Douglas Langdon
Vice President—Gerald Moran
Secretary—Victoria English
Treasurer—Joyce Segur

Sophomore Class

Character, ambition, and class spirit are dominant factors in this year's group of gay young sophomores. You have shown that you possess the qualities of leadership and sportsmanship so vital to Grafton High. It is to you, the Class of 1967, that we wish the best of success in all you attempt in both your remaining years of high school and throughout life.

President—Richard Mongeau
Vice President—Richard Eckross
Secretary—Sandra Norrman
Treasurer—Helen Rawinski

Who's first to sit on Santa's knee?

What do you mean there was candy in that rum?

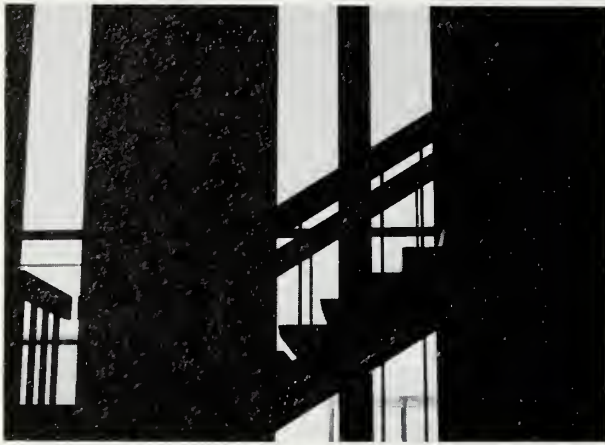

What will the teachers say?

Presentation of flowers

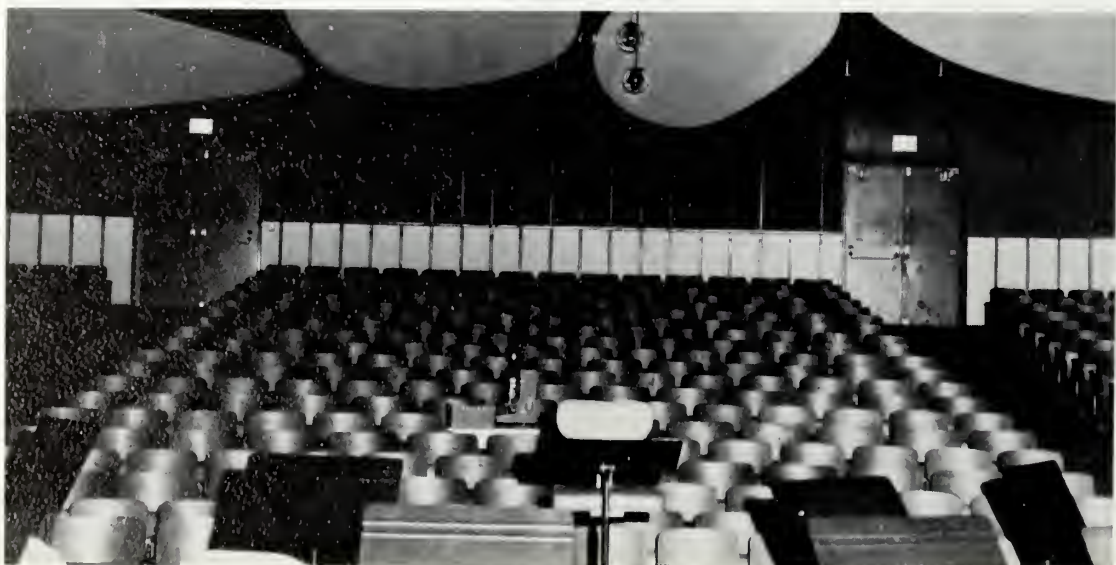

Oh, those cafeteria lunches!

Remember . . .

As it comes time to take another step in our journey through life, with fond memories we'll always remember . . .

Celebrating authors birthday parties with cake in Mr. LeBeau's English I class . . . PE₃Bu₁₁ on bread over a bunsen burner in Mr. Z's chem class . . . Mr. D's favorite saying, "Mine is not to reason why, mine is but to do and die." . . . Sue Pichette's parties!!! . . . Fruit loops being ripped from shirts when least expected . . . Sophomore English with Mrs. Carlson . . . Those "off" days at rehearsal when the cast of "Mrs. McThing" became very interested in "sports" . . . The 1500 streamers at our junior prom and the sandbags in the pole . . . When Mark Tebo made a basket for the wrong team . . . The Reject Club and their motto, "Unity is Strength" . . . Brian Lacilla's Presley imitations . . . The "unexpected guest" at the last day of school assembly our Junior year, and how he hopped around . . . The day Lorna Atchue slid into homeroom and was declared "out" by Miss Droney . . . When Lenny Buck had to take a note to the office . . . Mr. Landry's, "No doubt about it" . . . When Mr. P. had five parties in one day . . . Miss Miner and the "Stooges" of Junior English IIIA . . . The day three girls and three boys got lost in the woods, picking leaves, during one of Mr. Wheeler's field trips . . . When Sheila D'Attorro ate the shaving cream at Freshman Initiation . . . Duffy's performance as "Stinker" . . . When Linda Durant gave up her skirt for a worthy cause . . . Mr. Mehigan! . . . The day Mr. Dussault taught his Civics classes a lesson . . . Carla Nettelbladt's petition for the Frat Ratz . . . The year we beat Millbury in basketball by one point . . . The seventh and eighth grade class trips to Whalom Park . . . Miss Levey's puppet shows . . . That smile and the dimples of a certain Senior English teacher . . . The spider down Ruthie MacDuffie's back . . . Senior privileges . . . The day we took our college boards in the dark and in 60° weather (inside) . . . The year the girls wore dog collars on their ankles and wrists . . . When they gave us knives in the cafeteria . . . Painting all those brick walls for the Shanteyland Pool Hall . . . The day Evelyn Guillete wore two different shoes to school . . . Taping up all those icicles for the Senior Ball and eating all those hamburgers . . . Being the first class to go a whole year in the "new school" . . . Miss Droney's blush and her favorite sayings, "pour demain" and "allez au tableau" . . . The way Mr. Provencher "makes his points" . . . All the good and lasting friendships we've made at G.H.S.—yes, we'll always remember.

The class of '65 would like, at this time, to thank all of those who made this yearbook possible.

When, as a child, I laughed and wept,
Time crept;
When, as a youth, I dreamed and talked,
Time walked;
When I became a full grown man,
Time ran;
And later, as older I grew,
Time flew;
Soon I shall find, while traveling on,
Time gone.
